

1. Say two words both starting with the same first sound. Example: cat and cot
2. Ask the child to think of another word with the same first sound. Example: car
3. Repeat the activity by choosing words with a different first sound

